

CLUB CORNER

Pink Invitational Raises $65,000 for a Great Cause

USA Gymnastics would like to recognize the Pink Invitational and AJS Pancott Gymnastics National Training Center in West Chester, Pa., for donating more than $65,000 to Living Beyond Breast Cancer.

The Pink Invitational and AJS Pancott Gymnastics National Training Center would like to thank the gymnastics community for coming out in such HUGE numbers to unite in the First PINK Invitational 2009. They are so grateful for the opportunity to bring such awareness and help to those affected by breast cancer. The large donation is a direct reflection of the commitment and dedication received from sponsors, donors, gymnasts, and volunteers. All united for one cause; all united to help those in need.

Congratulations Pink Invitational and AJS Pancott Gymnastics National Training Center! ✧

Photos by Paul Alesse/Team Photo

THINK POSITIVE

Gymnastics Michiana in South Bend, Ind., is surrounded by positive sayings. Check out all the great signs that hang in their training facility for all to see! They started the business in 1981, and for 28 years have kept the positive outlook in their mission and it shows!

Gymnastics Michiana is owned by Dan Poe. Keep up the encouraging words!!! ✧

